NOV 28 1953

The Honorable Prescott Bush
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Pres:

Thank you for your letter of 12 November 1953, forwarding the employment record of [redacted]

[redacted] recently applied directly to the Agency for employment, and on 27 October we informed him that we did not have any vacancies for him at present.
However, when [redacted] returns to the United States, we would be happy to interview him to see if there ~~were~~ <sup>are</sup> any vacancies at that time for which he might be qualified. As you know, we are doing very little hiring in the professional category at present, and I do not foresee much change in that picture.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
